

Hispanic American Report, Volumen 16,Parte 1

Ronald Hilton

Stanford University, Hispanic American Studies, 1963

Página 535

"However, it was revealed that a young poet, Manuel Moreno Barranco, reportedly an Anarchist sympathizer, had died in February when he jumped or was thrown from a second-story prison window in Jerez de la Frontera."